Centre Director, The Horton, Epsom, Surrey

Closes: 31 May 2019

Interviewing: July 2019

Location: South East

Type: Full time

Salary: Paid (£35k-£40k)

Artform: Heritage, culture, events, visual arts, performance, education

Description

A fantastic and rare opportunity to lead the development of a new arts and heritage centre in Epsom, Surrey.

We are the Horton Chapel Arts & Heritage Society, a Charitable Incorporated Society established to create a new arts centre by redeveloping Horton Chapel, the last remaining undeveloped building in the old cluster of mental hospitals outside Epsom. Building work will start in June 2019 with doors opening in June 2020, using funding from the National Heritage Lottery Fund and s106 funds from the local council.

Background to the project and to the building can be found on our website here:

The Society is looking to recruit a Centre Director, who will be our first employee, to lead the next stage of the existing Business Plan including oversight of the redevelopment work, detailed planning and marketing of the future activities and recruitment of the planned staff.

The role will appeal to individuals who relish the opportunity of working in a start-up venture. They will be supported by the volunteer Trustee Board, and a passionate group of local volunteers, but will be expected to lead across the wide range of artistic and operational facets of a new centre.
